

JUNIOR AUDITOR (starting date : from September 2026)

Audit Conseil Services (ACSe) is evolving and becomes EisnerAmper Luxembourg, marking a new phase of development and international expansion for the firm.

As a human-sized audit practice based in Luxembourg, ACSe is entering a transformative stage of its journey. By joining the global EisnerAmper network, the firm strengthens its international reach while preserving the proximity, agility, and entrepreneurial spirit that define its local identity.

The EisnerAmper network brings together more than 4,500 professionals across major financial centres worldwide, combining global expertise with strong local roots. This integration opens new perspectives for collaboration, exposure, and professional growth.

As part of our continued growth, we are looking for motivated Junior Auditors who are eager to build a solid technical foundation in audit while developing a deep understanding of clients' businesses. In this role, you will be involved in statutory audit engagements across various sectors, working closely with experienced team members and partners. Beyond technical skills, we are seeking individuals who naturally embody our core values - commitment, quality and flexibility - demonstrating rigor, integrity, team spirit and a genuine willingness to learn and contribute to a culture where people and excellence go hand in hand.

Your mission:

You will be trained and will work in close collaboration with your manager and the team to:

- Be in charge of a diverse portfolio of audit and certification assignments to provide effective and high quality services;
- Demonstrate a solid understanding of accounting and auditing concepts and be able to perform an audit engagement in compliance with auditing standards;
- Develop productive working relationships with clients and ensure a high level of client satisfaction.

Your profile:

- You have a Master's degree in economy or similar;
- You are fluent in French and English. Any other language will be considered as an asset;
- You are self-motivated, proactive, have a positive attitude and you possess a willingness to learn;
- You are an effective team player with excellent verbal and communication skills.

We offer you:

- Close supervision and mentoring from experienced professionals;
- The opportunity to develop in a diversified environment;
- The ability to develop and participate in a continuous training program;
- Harmonious working environment in very recent and spacious premises ;
- Minimum 27 days of vacation and meal vouchers;
- Other benefits with an attractive salary.

If you are keen to be integrated in a dynamic team and in a challenging environment, please send by email your resume to: Jonathan Meert (jmeert@eisneramper.lu) with the reference "Junior Auditor".
